

Anderson, Carlisle

Tuesday, 19 February 2008

CARLISLE ANDERSON. A world-famous member of the American chess team. In 1986, Anderson was a chess prodigy at age seventeen and lived in Minneapolis, Minnesota. During a flight to the Soviet Union, the plane the chess team was on was hijacked by terrorists. During a refueling, G.I. Joe team members Beach Head, Flint and Lady Jaye snuck onboard the plane. Anderson was the first to discover the Joes when Beach Head snuck into the plane's cabin through a opening under Anderson's seat. The Joes stopped the terrorists, saving the team and the other passengers.
