

Carruthers

Wednesday, 20 February 2008

CARRUTHERS. A member of Vance Wingfield's para-military group "Strike First", based in Montana. Carruthers one of the members who closest to Wingfield. When Wingfield unveiled his plan to drop a nuclear bomb on Russia, Carruthers piloted the B-29 bomber carrying the warhead. Shortly after Carruthers took off for Russia, Hawk caught up to him using one of Wingfield's fighter jets. He shot down the bomber, but expected Carruthers to bail out before it crashed in the ocean. Though he seemed to have time to do so, Carruthers went down with the plane.
