CISCO. A bodyguard of Punta Del Mucosa's El Presidente. He and fellow bodyguard Pancho were guarding the Presidente as he inspected the G.I. Joe team's Stealth fighter base in the small nation. They were both paid by Cobra to place a homing device onboard one of the fighter that would lead Cobra bombers right to the base. The homing device was discovered and both men were tied to a tractor and the device was stuck into Pancho's mouth. When Cobra arrived, the bombers destroyed the tractor, along with Pancho and Cisco.
