CLARENCE. A chaplain's assistant at the Army Chaplains' Assistants School located at Fort Wadsworth, Staten Island. Like the other chaplain's assistants, Clarence had no idea that the "ruffians" from the motor pool are in fact members of the G.I. Joe team. Clarence and his friend Cecil walked out of the assistants' tea and reading room in a huff when the then-suspended members of the team spent time there arm-wrestling and using one wall for hatchet-throwing practice.
