SIDETRACK. The code name used by U.S. Army Sergeant First Class John Boyce, born in New Manchester, West Virginia. Sidetrack is a former professional wrestler who later enlisted in the Army and became a Ranger, as well as a medic and interpreter. He eventually joined the reinstated G.I. Joe team. Today, like many Joes, he is a reserve member of the team. Sidetrack served in Sudan during the conflict known as World War III. One of many Joes listed on World War III member assignment map first seen in AE #28. The similarly-named action figure "Side Track" was released two years earlier, using a different file name.
