GLENDAL. The code name used by Argentine Air Intelligence Officer Jane Mullighan. She was a skilled helicopter pilot and intelligence operative that sometimes worked with the G.I. Joe team. Working with the reinstated team, Glenda led Hardball and Rampart on a mission to investigate a Cobra training outpost in Brazil. When the team arrived at the outpost, they found the Cobra agents inside had been killed. The group then stumbled upon the killers, operatives of the mysterious Red Shadows. Glenda and her companions were then killed as well, the first victims of the Red Shadows' campaign against G.I. Joe. The Red Shadows' plans were eventually defeated.

Glenda was originally a G.I. Joe action figure released exclusively in Argentina in the 1980s.
